Border City Team Indulge In Batting Orgy at Gaines' Field

Let's call the Newport ball team the Invincibles, for at the rate they are now going the name fits them like the skin fits a sausage, and when a good upstanding nine like say, Burlington goes up against them there is very apt to be a whitewash of something like 10 to 0 as was the case when Burlington did meet the Incincibles at Gaine Park on Friday afternoon.

There was a fair sized crowd out to see the slaughter, but the box office gives incontrovertible evidence that Newport is not buying tickets fast enough to assure the continuance of this lusty crowd of watters in Newport uniforms. All this is more than a shame.
